Make a Change Masterclasses
Learn the skills to lead your communities

Please see below the details of our Make a Change Masterclasses. These classes are open to everyone and aimed at equipping you with the tools you need to lead your communities:

Campaigning Effectively
This session will give you all the tools to be able to lead your campaign for change. You will be given the space and support to explore an issue you are passionate about and be able to articulate the key causes and consequences and understand who the key people are you need to target. By the end of the session you will have a clear plan of activity to bring about the change you want to see!

Effective Representation
This session will cover: understanding what representation encompasses, different forms of representation and when to use each, how to practice inclusive representation and engage hard to reach groups, and how to share the representative power downwards.

Facilitating Meetings
This session aims to build an understanding of how to effectively facilitate and chair a meeting. The training looks into concepts and terminology used in committee meetings, the importance of ensuring all voices are heard, how to prepare for meetings and consolidate and disseminate information afterwards, and how to communicate effectively, build a rapport and use active listening techniques within a meeting.

Understanding Liberation (Part 1)
This session aims to develop your understanding of your own relationship with and knowledge of liberation and concepts of privilege and oppression; to understand intersectionality as a theoretical framework and how to apply it practically within your role. The session also helps you contextualize what liberation looks like within KCLSU and create an understanding how our KCLSU Networks operate.

Understanding Liberation (Part 2)
This session will explore how the concept of allyship, how to connect with marginalised groups and the importance of amplifying the voices of marginalised groups. You will learn about the three models of allyship and the practical elements of being an ally.

Community Building
This session explores what community is, what communities you are part of and helps build an understanding of where existing communities are, and how to connect with these communities. In addition, the session gives insight into the methodology of listening campaigns as a tool of connecting with and building community. You will leave the workshop with an understanding of key principles of community organising such as collectivism, empowerment and how to use this approach to mobilise your community in bringing about change.
